

Claudia Carrera Pérez

(Spanish Instructor)

Claudia loves working with children and sees it as a very enriching experience. She believes that working as a teacher makes her a better mother to her 9 years old son. What she loves most about teaching a language is that she sees it as a way of building a bridge of comprehension and respect for other cultures.

Claudia is originally from Lima, Perú, but she claims that part of her heart is Mexican because of the 14 she spent there. Claudia attended, “Universidad de Antropología e Historia” in Mexico City from where she graduated with a Masters degree in Anthropology and Woman Studies.

Claudia’s passions include nature, poetry, and spending as much time as she can outdoors. As a writer, Claudia has had several of her short stories published while attending college in Mexico. In her free time, she practices yoga (mainly Kundalini) and loves cooking.

Claudia has been working for OLA as a Spanish teacher since 2016. Since the start she has become a vital part of our school. These days Claudia works as a teacher and curriculum developer.
